Q.1) Read the following passage carefully and answer the following questions. (10M)

We sometimes think that it would be very nice to have no work to do. How do we envy rich people who have not to work for their living but can do just what they please all the year round. Yet, when we feel this, we make mistake. Sometimes they are tired of having nothing to do. Most of us are happy when we have regular work to do. The first thing work does for us is to give us happiness. The work gives us self-respect. The idler however, rich lives on the work of others, But the honest worker who earns his living by useful toil, can hold up his head and respect himself. Lastly, regular work helps us in building up character. It teaches us such good habits as punctuality, carefulness and faithfulness in work. It is the man who works, not the idler, that as a rule develops the best character.

1) Why do we sometimes envy rich people?

Ans- _____

2) What is the first thing that work given us?

Ans- _____

3) Who develops the best character?

Q.1) Read the following passage carefully and answer the following questions. (10M)

The Sundarbans, located in West Bengal, is the largest mangrove forest in the world. It's home to the majestic Royal Bengal Tiger and many other species. The forest is crisscrossed with waterways and is a vital part of the ecosystem. Many people, like Sakina's family, live in the Sundarbans and depend on it for their livelihood.

Sakina's family has lived in the Sundarbans for generations. They've learned to adapt to the challenges of living in this unique environment. Sakina loves exploring the forest and learning about the different plants and animals that call it home.

One day, Sakina took her friends Gita and Mohit on a tour of the forest. They saw many amazing things, including a family of deer and a bird's nest with baby chicks. Sakina explained to her friends how the mangrove trees help protect the land from storms and provide food for the animals.

As they walked, Sakina's friends asked her many questions about the Sundarbans. Sakina was happy to share her knowledge and teach them about the importance of preserving this incredible ecosystem.

SECTION-A(Reading Skill)

Q.1) Read the following passage carefully and do the given activities. (10)

One of the greatest mysteries of bird life is travelling. Every year during autumn and early winter, birds travel from northern regions of Asia, Europe and America to the southern warmer lands. They make the return journey again during spring and early summer. They are punctual unless they are delayed by bad weather. They face many dangers and hardships while travelling long distances through the air, over hills, forests, plains and large stretches of water. Sometimes sudden storms arise and drive them far out of course. Often they are blown right out to sea and are drowned in the wild waves. At night bright lights attract and confuse the birds. They cannot fly at their fastest. The migration speed is usually from 48 to 64 km an hour and rarely exceeds 80.
